NEWS & VIEWS

QUEENS' HONOUR

In T.C.M. for October we recorded general manager of the A.B.C., Talbot Duckmanton, as having been awarded the Queen's honour of O.B.E.

This should have read C.B.E. — Commander of the Order of the British Empire — and we regret any inconvenience that may have been caused.

ON THE BLACK

In the pool and snookerhalls of the U.S.A., and subject of picture, story and legend, is a famous player who carries the cognomen of "Minnesota Fats."

When Peter McLean won this year's Club snooker handicap his pals in true Australian style immediately dubbed him "Minnesota Tatts."

CLASSIFIED

We particularly liked this excerpt from the 1971 annual report of the Australian Jockey Club.

"The coding system has also proved invaluable in identifying brood mares as well as strayed or stolen horses. In one such case a girl bought a stray mare from the Waterloo Pound for $54 and asked the registrar if he could identify it. The mare proved to be Inflame, a well bred N.Z. mare and in due course she produced a foal which was sold as a yearling for $3,150. Appropriately named Lost and Found, the colt won a number of races."

OVER THE FENCES

Keen golfer John Corcoran recently returned from overseas where he visited his son in Paris. John took time off to attend an eight event steeplechase meeting at the Societe Des Steeplechases de France.

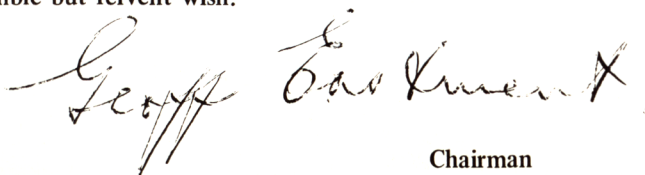

CHRISTMAS MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

This is indeed a splendid opportunity to extend to all in Tattersall's Club sincerest wishes for the happiest of Christmases and the most prosperous of New Years.

During this, my first year as Chairman, I have already experienced the spontaneous and active co-operation of my Committee colleagues, and the practical support of those associated with the administration and conduct of the Club in all its facets.

The provision of a variety of pastimes and sports which add to the health and well being of members and the dances and similar functions are a highlight of Sydney's social life affording a happy scope for simple pleasure which so many busy men crave to do.

That you may all enjoy the coming festive season to its utmost is my humble but fervent wish.

VALE . . .

JACK McNALLY

Those of us who have experienced the keen competition provided in swimming and surfing during the past and present generations always appreciate the doughty deeds of the champions.

We thrilled to the exploits of Boy Charlton, his victories over visiting internationals like Arne Borg, and the resounding cheers that rent the old Domain Baths and the fig trees of Lady Macquarie's Chair.

And so we recall Jack McNally, who passed away in September, aged 65 years, a real Tattersall's devotee.

At the time of his death he was international sales executive for a prominent lighting firm.

We recall what was then regarded as one of the most eventful races in the history of surfing in Australia, the Open Championship of 1928 when Tassie King, the pride of Pyrmont, and Jack McNally, swam together throughout. Jack won but was disqualified on a technicality.

At a time when competitive surfing had outstanding swimmers — Charlton, Ryan, Ernie Henry and Tom Meagher amongst them — Jack McNally was a star.

He was also a good baths swimmer as Tattersall's Club patrons would testify. His best remembered performance was finishing third to Boy Charlton and the Japanese Takashi in the N.S.W. 880 yards championship.

After serving with the R.A.A.F. in the Middle East, he was transferred to the Far East where he became a P.O.W. for three years. He was one of a group who attempted to escape to Java in three boats. Two of the boats and their crews were lost. The third of which Jack was a member was captured by the Japanese. Normally weighing 12 stone he was a little over seven stone when he returned to Australia.

To his widow Jean and sorrowing relatives we extend our condolences.

LOYAL EMPLOYEE

We regret to inform members of the passing of store controller Allan Mackie who was a well known and popular employee of Tattersall's for the past 38 years. He progressed in his service from steward to control the stores for the Club, and his death properly merits the Biblical phrase of "Well done thou good and faithful servant."

To his bereaved relatives we extend our condolences.

LACHIE MELVILLE

Popular Tattersall's Club identity Lachie Melville, who was one of the pioneers of race calling in the world, has passed away.

Lachie started work as office boy with the A.J.C. and later entered the newspaper industry.

The A.J.C. made him the official race broadcaster at Randwick, and then the A.B.C. employed him.

For many years Lachie was the A.B.C.'s top sporting commentator as well as being the official caller on Sydney's race tracks. His accurate, fluent race calls made his a household name throughout Australia.

His deep knowledge of racing helped him in his broadcasting duties.

He was a great boxing commentator and perhaps his most exciting broadcast was the famous fight between Vic Patrick and Fred Dawson in 1947 which will long be remembered as one of the most dramatic sporting broadcasts of all times.

Because of an illness Lachie retired from the A.B.C. and race calling in 1957. He later joined the Daily Telegraph where he was a sporting sub-editor for 12 years until his retirement last year.

His funeral was largely attended, and leading the great number of Tattersall's members were Treasurer Barney Fay and Committeemen Jack O'Neill and Jack McKell.

To his sorrowing widow Millie, daughter Annette and son David, and his bereaved relatives, we extend our condolences.

LATE JOHN DAVOREN QC.

The death of John Davoren, QC, removed a Tattersall's Club regular patron and one of this State's leading criminal lawyers.

In a legal career that dated back 48 years he appeared in many of the most widely publicised murder trials in N.S.W.

John was born and educated in South Australia and worked for 17 years in Broken Hill before joining the R.A.A.F. in 1942.

He left the R.A.A.F. in 1954 with the rank of wing commander, after directing their legal services for several years.

In 1960 he was appointed QC.

John Davoren was a member of the Courts Martial Appeal Tribunal, and a council member of the International Commission of Jurists.

To his widow Maimie we extend our sincere sympathy.

GOLF CLUB'S LADIES' NIGHT

"A MOST ENJOYABLE EVENING" was the sentiment expressed by Golf Club members, Tattersall's members and visitors on the occasion of the third annual Ladies' Night held on Tuesday, 16th November.

A record crowd of 175 was a fitting tribute to the ladies who looked anything but golf widows.

The latest fashions were once again on display and the attractive gowns were greatly appreciated. Wisely there were no prizes in the fashion stakes — only the most biased of judges could have arrived at a decision.

Tattersall's Club Chairman, Geoff Eastment, and his lovely wife Rhona, were the official guests for the evening, and this was an appropriate recognition of the Chairman who has been a tireless worker for the golfing section.

In the absence of popular President Clare Higson, who had made a rather unscheduled visit to St. Vincent's to relinquish his appendix, golfing official Kevin McCann welcomed the guests and visitors, and presented a beautiful sheaf of flowers to Mrs. Eastment.

During the evening tribute was paid to Mrs. Jan Banner, who throughout the year has done such magnificent "behind the scenes" organisation for the Golf Club's outings.

The cocktail hour in the Club Room set the pattern for the relaxed evening that followed, and the Chateaubriand and Champagne dinner more than satisfied the most ardent gourmets. The standard of the Dining Room is unsurpassed in Sydney, and the Golf Club Committee has expressed special thanks to the chef and staff who in no small way added to the success of the evening.

The young and not so young cavorted (is there any other word for it) to the excellent music of the Frank Murray Quartet, who seemed most generous in playing until the early hours of the morning.

The accompanying pictures are evidence of the enjoyable evening had by all although without mentioning names, it might be suggested that the photographer has caught one committeeman-elect assisting slightly beyond the call of duty.

MOSS VALE WEEKEND

A party of 45 people enjoyed a most pleasant weekend on 30th and 31st October. The weather was kind to us and the golf course in spite of the dry weather conditions, was in excellent condition.

Most of us arrived during Friday and spent the afternoon loosening up for the weekend tournaments, although Jack and Mary Beetham spent a full week practising at the Moss Vale course with good results, as evidenced when Jack and our host David Jones won the Dunningham Shield.

Prizes for the various competitions were presented during a cocktail hour held on Sunday afternoon. All in all it was a most successful weekend, and we are looking forward to next year's excursion.

Results: Winners of the Dunningham Shield were David Jones and Jack Beetham with 46 points, on a countback from Jack Martin and George Martin, 46 points.

The men's singles stableford was won by Ray Lenehan, 36 points, who also won the men's individual stableford on the Sunday with 38 points.

The four ball mixed stableford on Sunday was won by John Page and Mary Humphery with 42 points, while the ladies' individual stableford was won by Shirley Meehan with 27 points on a countback from Mary Beetham.

BOWLING NOTES

by FRED EMPSON

President Fuzz Porter extends seasonal greetings to all members of Tattersall's Club and wishes them a happy Christmas and prosperous New Year. The usual festive dinner dance will be held next Easter.

The singles championship has reached the semi-final stage with the past champions once again to the fore.

Homer Jones & Frank Hidden at Bellevue Hill

Results from the weekly trophy games were:

September 30th, Bellevue Hill: J. Redhill (vis), G. Kovich (vis) and P. Solomon.

October 7th, City: S. Green, H. Abbott, K. Williams.

October 14th, Bellevue Hill: K. Manion, H. Hillston (vis), M. Greenberg.

October 21st, Rose Bay: S. Clements, M. Barnett, H. Hill.

October 28th, Double Bay: T. Renensson, J. Bazzan (vis), B. Chamberlain.

November 4th, Double Bay: F. Spring, N. Solomon and D. O'Brien (vis).

November 11th, Double Bay: R. Morson, K. Williams, L. Malouf.

November 18th, Rose Bay: G. Britton (vis), R. Darch, J. Whyte, P. Goldman.

A most consistent effort by Eric Westhoff in his Club's pairs championships when he was a winner again this year at Warrawee with partner Malcolm Brodie. This is his fourth pairs championship win at his club.

The club's singles championship has given the Bowling Section the lift that it required. Bigger attendances and an influx of good players assures all members of a good game. With over 40 players nominating to play against City Tattersalls at Kensington, our club has never been in a healthier position.

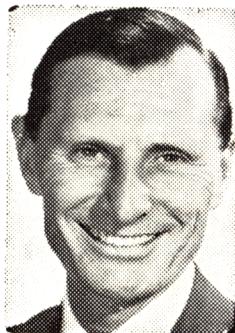

Tattersall's Club members and the Bowling Section in particular join in sympathy for our Bowling Club's President, Dr. Fuzz Porter, in the sad loss of his wife recently. Although Mrs. Porter was in ill health for a long period, it was a sad blow. Our condolences to Fuzz and his family.

SWIMMING NOTES

by SAM BLOCK

Honours of the first month's swimming events for the new season went to Russell Debney who carried off the monthly point score in great fashion with a tally of 31½ points.

Russell has been sprinting in great style scoring three firsts and a second, whilst in recording a win in 18.8 secs. he relegated the leader David Dind into second place along with Jim Comans on 26 points.

The star turns of the month were the brilliant wins of Fred Daly MHR, the member for Grayndler, and the triple dead heat between the three starters Jim Comans, Ron Batley and John Reid. Jim really thrills the onlookers with his fantastic finishing touch.

The Club has the pleasure of welcoming a father and son combination in the persons of Angus and Warren Foster, two of our top notch cue exponents from the Second Floor. Both these members distinguished themselves, Angus in swimming a well judged race to record his first victory, whilst Warren was unfortunate enough to incur the displeasure of the check starter.

New members also welcomed were John Vale, Bill Harrison, Denis Pearson, Brian Harvey and Rhys Jordan, the last three all recording well earned victories.

Nice to have Don Hay, Barry Larbalestier and that evergreen Jack Shafraan competing over the 40 yard dashes again.

Fastest winning times to date were R. Debney 18.8, 19.3 and 19.7, Roger Farrell 19.0, M. McCormack 19.9 and 20.0, P. King 20.5, T. Forrest 20.6, N. Rogers 20.7, N. Heath 20.8 and 21.8, M. Stening 21 and W. Orme 21.3 secs.

Amongst those penalised for breaking their times were B. Harvey (2) R. Harris, D. Pearson, F. Daly, R. Debney, M. McCormack, G. Stanford, J. McClean, C. Warne, W. Tyler, R. Jordan, B. Larbalestier and T. Forrest.

The big event of the month will be the traditional Christmas Scramble, which will be held on Tuesday 21st December at 1.15 p.m. sharp. Maybe there will not be any hams or turkeys, but there will be plenty of prizes of Christmas cheer together with a gift for members' ladies. As usual the event will be a teams race with a consolation handicap.

Donations towards same will be greatly appreciated.

Excerpt from the Sun 25 years ago.. "War veteran Arthur O'Connor resigned his post of leader of the State diving troupe. Noted for his daring, Arthur made dives at North Sydney pool that had never been seen in Sydney before."

The leaders in the Native Son trophy are R. Debney 34½, D. Dind 31, J. Comans 28, C. Warne 28, M. O'Dea 28, W. Rowe 27, N. Heath 26, J. Langsworth 26, B. Phillips 26.
